

REVIEWER Position Available

The Pharmaceutical Advertising Advisory Board (PAAB) is looking for a reviewer. The PAAB is an independent, non-profit organization whose mission is to provide a preclearance review that fosters trustworthy healthcare communications within a regulatory framework. Reviewers help maintain high standards for drug promotion by assessing proposed advertising copy for compliance with the scientific and ethical standards set in the PAAB Code of Advertising Acceptance.

PAAB reviewers have strong therapeutic, analytical, and research assessment skills. Additionally, their excellent communication and interpersonal skills enable them to thrive as part of an ambitious and goal oriented team.

Qualifications include: a university degree in pharmacy or equivalent scientific studies, fluency in English with ability to read and speak in French, and computer literacy. Experience in medical information, regulatory affairs or pharmaceutical marketing is an asset.

Competitive salary and benefits based on experience. The PAAB office is close to the 401, just east of Metro Toronto. Your resume should be sent to PAAB Deputy Commissioner Patrick Massad preferably by email: patrickm@paab.ca. Alternatively, it could be sent by FAX to (905) 509-2486 or by mail to 1305 Pickering Parkway Suite 300, Pickering Ontario L1V 3P2. See our website at www.paab.ca for more information about the PAAB. Only those chosen for an interview will receive a reply.
